

Indigenous Perspectives

Free online learning for teachers, educators & families

Engage with the values and protocols of a 60,000 year-old culture & bring them into your community

Engaging with an Indigenous Perspective

Explore different ways of extending your knowledge, connections and practice

Protocol

Understand the importance of respecting and honouring Indigenous Protocols

Yarning

Explore how Yarning brings people together to communicate with respect and safety

Reconciliation Action Plans

Reconciliation is vital for fostering mutual understanding and respect between Indigenous and non-Indigenous people Australians

Relationships

Interconnectedness is fundamental to Indigenous Peoples; woven into cultural identity, spiritual beliefs and social structures

Country

Learn about Country; a living, breathing entity that hears, sees, feels us, and talks to us all

Dadirri and Kanyini

Discover ways of being within Aboriginal culture

Pause & Reflect

Additional Resources at the click of a mouse

Reviewing Learning

Reflecting on opportunities & ideas for practice

